The Jones Library Summer Reading 2019: How It Works

The Goal: Read 10 hours over the 7 weeks of the Jones Library Summer Reading Program, June 14th to August 3rd.

How It Works:

- Find something you love to read!
- Use your log sheet to keep track of the time you spend reading. Each circle= 1 hour of reading time.
- For every 2 hours you read, you will get a raffle ticket towards a weekly prize drawing.
- Bring your log sheet to the library. A librarian will check your time and give you tickets.
- The more you read, the more chances you’ll have in the weekly raffle!
- Raffle drawings will be Monday morning before the library opens. Submit your time by the end of the day Saturday, or save it up for the following week.

What do you have to read?

- You can read whatever you want! There is no assigned list.
- Anything you read for a school program or other reading challenge counts for our program, too.

What counts as reading?

- Reading the same book over and over
- Someone reading a story to you
- Reading a story to someone else
- Reading an article in a magazine
- Reading an email or letter from your friend
- Listening to audiobook

Programs: You can earn a raffle ticket for each summer reading event you attend at the library.

The Grand Prize: Everyone who reads 10 hours will get one ticket to the grand prize raffle drawing.

Bonus: Can we work together to read 5,000 Hours? (In 2018 we read 3,230 hours!)

The Party: Everyone who signs up for the summer reading program is invited to our end of summer reading party—even if you haven’t read 10 hours. The party will be on Saturday August 3rd.
